

Analysis (3-4 sentences)

*Use these strategies to explain the significance of your quotes

Stylistic Devices - denotation & connotations, symbols, metaphors, similes, opposites, repetition, etc.

See G-9

In this passage, word “ _____ ” brings to mind _____. The author also uses the word “ _____ ” which is associated with _____. Even though it is not stated, these words help to suggest _____.

Patterns: recurring ideas, images, symbols, motifs, events

*Look for patterns in a character’s attitude, behaviors, speech (or a change in pattern)

- The recurring image of _____ suggests the author wants the reader to make a connection between this symbol and _____. The reason for this is _____.
- This isn’t the first time _____. We also see this when _____.
- One pattern of behavior we see with Name of Character is that he/she _____

Tie to Another Part of the Text

How does the language or connotations of specific words connect to another part of the text?

- These connotations also remind us of how ... (connect to a character)
- These words are also used to describe the character _____ when _____
- While these words are used to describe _____, they also remind us of (name of character or situation / event)
- While character may be talking about _____, she might also be _____
- The character’s description of _____ is similar to _____
- This imagery/description of _____ is also similar to _____ because _____

How does another part of the text support what you have just said?

- An example of this is when _____

How is this situation or character similar or different to another situation or character in the text?

- The description of _____ is similar to _____ because _____ also _____
- This is similar to when _____

Character Development – How does this quote show a change in the character?

- Up until now, this character has always _____, however, now _____
- Previously, _____. Now, however, Name of character is starting to _____
- For the first time, name of character is realizing that _____
- Based on _____ one would expect _____ but instead _____