

Psychologist Log: Ch 1

Quote with page number	Commentary
Directions: As you read Catcher in the Rye, record quotes (with the page number) about Holden that show his: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Physical health</li> <li>• Social skills and relationships with peers and adults</li> <li>• Academic performance</li> <li>• Mental / emotional stability</li> <li>• Interests – remember you can also infer what Holden likes based on what he says he does NOT like</li> <li>• View of the world; values and beliefs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• _____ is a concern because healthy/unhealthy students would / would not ...</li> <li>• _____ is a real issue because ...</li> <li>• Holden appears to enjoy . . .</li> <li>• Holden seems to be successful when he . . .</li> <li>• Holden is clearly concerned about _____ because ...</li> <li>• Holden is happy/upset because _____, revealing...</li> <li>• Holden’s tone is ... This shows he is ...</li> <li>• Holden identifies with ...</li> <li>• Holden is motivated by . . .</li> <li>• Even though Holden _____, he really feels _____.</li> <li>• Holden’s attitude about ... is . . .</li> <li>• When Holden says he doesn’t like _____ this shows that he does value _____.</li> </ul>
“Life is a game, boy. Life is a game that one plays according to the rules.” “Yes, sir.” I know it is. I know it.” Game, my ass. Some game. If you get on the side where all the hot shots are, then it’s a game, all right- I’ll admit that. But if you get on the other side, where there aren’t any hot-shots, then what’s a game about it? Nothing. No game.” (8)	Sample: Holden’s tone here is clearly _____ and _____. Holden is upset by the idea that _____ and believes that the game is _____ indicated by the fact that he verbally agrees but _____. This shows Holden identifies with those who _____.
“Oh, I feel some concern for my future, all right. Sure. Sure, I do. . . But not too much, I guess. Not too much, I guess. “You will,” old Spencer said. “You will, boy. You will when it’s too late.” I didn’t like hearing him say that. It made me sound dead or something. It was very depressing. (14)	